

Russian Language Summer School Tomsk State University
Faculty of Foreign Languages

Aim

To improve Russian language proficiency, including both communicative and socio-cultural competencies. These skills facilitate communication with native speakers and ease everyday life in Russia. Immersion in an appropriate linguistic setting to learn Russian. Introduction to the Siberian culture and traditions.

Who Is The Russian Language Summer School For

People who are studying Russian language.

Our highly qualified and experienced tutors will support you in developing your Russian language skills during this intensive course.

Course Outline

Our Russian Language Summer School includes 50 hours of classes in the following areas: culture and traditions of Siberia and Tomsk; basics of translation between Russian and English languages; improve communication skills on various topics, from domestic to socio-political ones; enhance writing, oral and reading skills; upgrade monologue and dialogue skills. It also includes 44 hours of cultural events as excursions in Tomsk, visits to the Museum of History of Tomsk, temples and theaters; trips to the historical fortress; excursion to industrial enterprises producing local branded products; participation in master classes which consist in painting clay and wooden toys; visit to the international festival called “the Day of the Ax competition”.

Course Dates & Entry Requirements

Starting date: the 12th of August 2019/ Ending date: the 29th of August 2019

Deadline - The usual deadline for applying to our Summer School is 2 months before the starting date.

Accommodation

The University offers rooms in a modern dormitory “Parus”, which is 5 minutes away on foot from the University ($16 for the whole period).

Tuition Fees

The tuition fee for the Russian Language Summer School is $550. This fee includes: all tuition materials, weekly tutorials and regular educational visits to sites around Tomsk.

Our professors:

Alla L. Sheketera, teacher at the English philology Department of Modern and Foreign Languages (MFL) Faculty at TSU. Work experience with foreign students - over 18 years.

Irina S. Savitska, teacher at the English philology Department of Modern and Foreign Languages Faculty at TSU. Work experience with foreign students - over 18 years.

Natalia A. Karpova, dean of the TSU MFL Faculty. Work experience with foreign students – 5 years.

A unique teaching methodology and an individual approach to each student ensure the achievement of the best results.

To issue an invitation you need to send:

- a scan of your passport;
- a completed application form for TSU Summer School.

Coordinator contacts: Alla L. Sheketera, deputy dean of MFL Faculty on educational work, manager of international students +7 (3822) 529896

Applications have to be sent to the following addresses:

alla.sheketera@mail.ru

tsusummerschool@mail.ru

