

Designing and Launching an International Online Course: Experience with Coursera

Dear colleagues,

If you are interested in creating your own online course in English on an international platform, Dr Peter J Mitchell, founding head of our Department of Translation and Communication, will be glad to share his experience of designing and launching a course for Coursera.

His course, Career planning: resume/CV, cover letter, interview, successfully launched on Coursera on 18 June 2020. In its first week, 1056 learners enrolled from across the world, breaking several records in terms of numbers of learners, international reach and positive reviews. It now ranks as one of the top 20 most popular MOOCs in the world in July.

Please join us on Zoom, on Friday 28 August 2020, at 14:00. To register your interest and receive the link, please send an email to Gleb Golubev at nickleliquid@yandex.ru stating your full name and position. Thank you!

Active discussion and questions are welcome. Please note that the working language will be English.

Best wishes for a relaxing and productive summer,

Dr Olga V Nagel
